DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 04/21/2008 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11-12 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. In claim 1, lines 12-16; the requirement that the at least one first support having N syringes and at least second support having N/2 syringes so that ....and the second support dispense the material onto odd number of the image display parts and then dispense onto even number of the image display parts after moving the second support. As shown on paragraphs 37-41 and Figs 4-5, first and second supports having the same number of syringes (3 syringes each) and a substrate are disclosed. Furthermore, applicants' specification (see paragraphs 43-44) teaches method and apparatus for manufacturing display panel with different sizes as indicated on Figures 6A-6D. In these drawings odd and even numbers of display parts are shown on the panel. However, the claimed relationship of the number of syringes with the number of display parts on the panel is not taught in the figures or the original specification. It is also noted that the number of syringes mounted on the supports (514A and 514B) is not correlated as claimed by the applicants (N or  $N/2$ , see claim 1). As shown in the applicants' figures, the number of syringes mounted on the support 514A is 3 and the number of syringes disposed on the support 514B is 4 (see Figs 6C and 6D).

4. The prior art of record does not specifically teach or suggest a dispenser for liquid crystal display panel as claimed (see claim 1) comprising, among others, supports, a plurality of syringes affixed at each support, wherein the supports are independently driven from each other and including at least one first support having N syringes and at least one second support having  $N/2$  syringes.
